Subject: TopLine Business Solutions Consultant Training

My name is Thomas Flint. I'm Director of Supply Chain Management and a consultant for a procurement and expense reduction consulting firm.

I recently attended TopLine Business Solutions Business Consultant training conducted by TopLine Business Solutions Chief Executive Officer, Martin Howey.

Several weeks ago I made a decision to invest in professional development training from TopLine Business Solutions and Martin Howey. In retrospect, having completed the training two days ago, I can sincerely state this was one of the smartest, most profitable, investments I have ever made. I absolutely have no buyer's remorse.

As procurement professional, I am cautious, conservative, pragmatic, and skeptical when considering spending money. It is my responsibility as an agent with fiduciary responsibility to conduct due diligence and analyze value, return on investment, and total cost of ownership on expenditures. I conducted such due diligence, research, and analysis on TopLine Business Solutions prior to investing my personal funds. As a result, I chose to invest my money and time in TopLine Business Solutions training because of the breadth, depth, integrity, quality, and substance of TopLine Business Solutions executive management, reputation, and training program. It is my sincere belief that I will recover 100 percent of my investment, or more, within thirty days or less.

If you are considering attending TopLine Business Solutions' training you should know that TopLine Business Solutions under-promises and over-delivers...you will not find even one ounce of hyperbole.

Martin provided literally over thirty-two hours, thirty-three pounds, and hundreds of suggestions and tips during my training. Just one topic, on just one page, in just one of TopLine's training manuals was worth several times my entire tuition and travel costs as it solved a real-life problem my company was experiencing with several of our existing clients.

Martin Howey is a gentleman and a teacher in the truest sense of the words. His concern for the success of his students is visible and sincere, and extends beyond your time and training in Tempe. You will receive many times more value in earning potential and practical solutions to real-life consulting issues than the dollar value of your entire investment in Martin's training.

I recommend Martin Howey and TopLine Business Solutions without hesitation, qualification, or reservation.

Sincerely,

Thomas Flint
